Winning With Humor

“Craig Shoemaker might be the funniest man on the planet. His style of humor transcends race, age, gender and all other little groups we like to put ourselves into. Craig has performed at charity events that I have been involved in producing and he is always the talk of the vent, once people catch their breath from laughing so damn hard. He is worth every cent.”

- Chris Eaton, Celebrity Events & Entertainment

“We’ve booked Craig four times over the past five years and he’s provided gut-clenching, foot-stomping laughter every time. He’s as good as stand-up comic as there is and a sure thing when it comes to entertaining an audience.””

- David R. Miller, President/CEO, Intergrated Sports

“We had Craig at the Mirage in Vegas. It was a smash hit. A month later I’m still hearing about it. I got three new clients in less than a week. I can’t wait to have him back next year!”

- Bob Picone, ARM
